PRIVACY NOTICE THE JERUSALEM TRUST

INTRODUCTION

Jerusalem Productions Limited (“Jerusalem/we/us/our”) is a media production company working to increase understanding and knowledge of the Christian religion and its values via the broadcast media. Jerusalem works with freelance creative directors, broadcast journalists and reporters in developing and creating exciting educational content for television, internet, and social media channels.

Our strategy is to focus on advancing the Christian religion and to promote Christian organisations and the charitable purposes and institutions they support and to advance Christian education and learning in the UK and overseas.

We share offices located at The Peak, 5 Wilton Road, London SW1V 1AP with the Jerusalem Trust and other charitable trusts which are operated by the Sainsbury Family Charitable Trusts.

Keeping your personal information safe is very important to us. We are registered as a data controller with the Information Commissioner’s Office. Our registration number is Z6144251. Jerusalem is committed to the protection of your personal data we process in line with the data protection principles set out in the UK General Data Protection Regulation (“UK GDPR”) and the Data Protection Act (2018).

We have policies, procedures, and training in place to help our employees understand their data protection responsibilities and our data protection principles.

We have a nominated member of staff who serves as our Data Protection Manager. If you have any questions regarding how we collect, store and process your personal data, please email dataprotection@sfct.org.uk. We have also appointed an independent Data Protection Officer at data protection consultants, Evalian Limited who can be contacted by email at dpo@evalian.co.uk.

JERUSALEM PRODUCTIONS

This privacy notice explains what personal data we collect from individuals who visit our offices or contact us by email, phone, or apply for a grant or send us other communications (“you/your”).

We place great importance on ensuring the quality, confidentiality, integrity and availability of the data we hold and in meeting our data protection obligations when processing personal data. Jerusalem is committed to protecting the security of your personal data. We use a variety of technical and organisational measures to help protect your personal data from unauthorised access, use or disclosure.

If you have applied for a job with us or another trust or submitted your CV (or similar employment information) to us, we process your personal data as set out in our privacy notice for recruitment candidates (www.sfct.org.uk/privacy-notices).

We update this privacy notice from time to time in response to changes in applicable laws and regulations, to our processing practices or other services we offer. When changes are made, we will update the date at the bottom of this document. Please review this privacy notice periodically to check for updates.

SHARING YOUR INFORMATION

We will not sell or exchange your personal information. We will only share your personal information where we are required to fulfil our grant award agreement with you, or legitimate interest, where we have your consent, or we are required to do so by law.

We may share your personal information with third party organisations who will process it on our behalf. This is strictly governed by data processing terms which confirms that the personal information we provide will only be used for the purposes we specify and will be processed in line with data protection legislation.

Other third parties we may share your personal data with include:

- Public bodies such as the Inland Revenue, or the police. The legal basis in these cases is compliance with our legal obligations.
- In case of an emergency we may also share your information with the relevant public health and emergency services and contact your next of kin. The legal basis for processing in such cases is to protect your vital interests.

INTERNATIONAL TRANSFERS

Jerusalem operates primarily in the UK, but may, indirectly, support charitable organisations that operate overseas. All contract administration takes place in the UK.

JERUSALEM PRODUCTIONS

Jerusalem works with several advisors and suppliers and it is possible that we will share your data with other third-party suppliers that process your data in countries outside the UK where the data protection laws are not equivalent to those within the UK. Where this applies, we do so, either on the basis of an 'adequacy decision' or documented in an International Data Transfer Agreement (IDTA) approved by the UK Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) which contractually obliges companies in those countries to the standard expected within the UK. More information about these is available here.

YOUR RIGHTS

The UK GDPR provides you with certain rights in relation to the processing of your personal data, including to:

- Request access to personal data about you (commonly known as a "data subject access request"). This enables you to receive a copy of the personal data we hold about you, and to check that we are lawfully processing it.
- Request rectification, correction, or updating to any of the personal data that we hold about you. This enables you to have any incomplete or inaccurate information we hold about you corrected.
- Request personal data provided by you to be transferred in machine-readable format ("data portability").
- Request erasure of personal data. This enables you to ask us to delete or remove personal data where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it. You also have the right to ask us to delete or remove personal data where you have exercised your right to object to processing (see below).
- Request the restriction of processing of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to suspend the processing of personal data about you (e.g. if you want us to establish its accuracy or the reason for processing it).
- Object to the processing of your personal data in certain circumstances. This right may apply where the processing of your personal data is based on the legitimate interests of Jerusalem.

These rights are not absolute and are subject to various conditions under applicable data protection and privacy legislation and the laws and regulations to which we are subject.

JERUSALEM PRODUCTIONS

If at any time you decide that you no longer wish to be contacted for general information / marketing purposes, or if you would like to exercise any of your rights as set out above, you can contact us by email. See 'Contact Us'.

You will not have to pay a fee to access your personal data (or to exercise any of the other rights). However, we may charge a reasonable fee if your request for access is clearly unfounded or excessive. Alternatively, we may refuse to comply with the request in such circumstances.

In addition to the above, please note that you have the right to make a complaint at any time to the Information Commissioner's Office if you are concerned about the way in which we are handling your personal data.

DATA RETENTION PERIOD

We will retain your personal data for as long as it necessary for the purpose of our relationship or until you object to us processing it or withdraw your consent. We will not retain your personal information if it is no longer required. In some circumstances, we may legally be required to retain your personal information, for example for finance or audit purposes.
